VOL. XXXIV. I

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, O., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1910.

NO. 30.

WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

The oaken bucket has a place in story and in song, And to the wooden cradle, too, Some laurel-wreaths belong. The orchard swing, the ancient clock The old traditions show in all. But dearest to my mind of all Was mother's rocking chair.

Rally Day at the Lutheran church next Sunday.

D. R. Lehman has my thanks for all the fall peaches I could eat at one sitting.

Eugene Piller and daughter of Youngstown were here Sunday visiting his mother.

The Institute has been cleaned and repaired, and Wm. Holt has been employed as janitor.

Miss Minnie Stouffer, Fred Bossett, Glenn and Fred Davis were home from Alliance over Sunday.

Earl Davis, brakeman on the L. E. A. & W. out of Alliance, spent a few days with home folks.

A petition was being circulated for the removal of county detective Fred Culler when he resigned.

Clifford Davis and Glenn Smedley were home from Sharon Saturday and saw the football game here.

Another boiler with a capacity of 125 h. p. has been placed at the clay plant, which already has two boilers of 60 h. p. each, making the present capacity 245 h. p.

Among the court cases at Lisbon assigned for this week are James Atkinson Jr., vs. the Card & Prosser Coal Co.; Percy Tetlow as administrator against same, and Leon Lixel as administrator vs. the Salem Coal Co.

Drs. Yagel and Heck of Salem and Dr. Marquis of Lisbon were here Saturday forenoon and removed an aqueous ovarian tumor from Mrs. S. C. Wilson. Miss O'Camp, a professional nurse from Lakeside hospital in Cleveland, is in attendance.

The local freight train met with a wreck at the station Friday noon when going south. A Michigan Central car No. 15162 was thrown into the ditch at O. C. Weikart's mill and a Missouri Pacific car No. 28942 was thrown across the tracks and wrecked.

A train came from Youngstown at 4 o'clock and in less than an hour the wreckage was cleared away, with no delay to the evening mail train.

A large crowd of women and children, and a few tax payers gathered upon the common on Baker alley at 6 o'clock Friday night to see an exhibition fire run with the chemical fire extinguisher. Fire Marshal Culler had the machine loaded, and two wagon loads of boxes and barrels on fire when he fired two shots to notify the men at the engine house that he was ready. The fire was soon extinguished and the crowd dispersed.

The next exhibition should be along Main street from Gilbert's store to Baker alley, thence to the town lot.

There being no services at the Lutheran church Sunday night, the Methodist church was fairly well filled to hear a good discourse by Rev. C. M. Grimes upon the proper use of the body as a fit temple for a pure mind, taking his text from First Corinthians 6, 20. "Ye are bought with a price, therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." Rev. Grimes is a close reasoner, delivers good sermons and quits when he is done; he speaks to the point without fault-finding and presumes that his hearers can understand him without a diagram. His next appointment here will be October 30th, morning and evening.

The sheriff of Stark county was here Wednesday and subpoenaed A. L. Taylor as a character witness in the divorce case of Mrs. Sadie Pregezer vs. Charles Pregezer, pending in the court at Canton.

Francis McClurg, aged 21, died of typhoid fever at home in Millville at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. He is survived by his widow, mother and one brother. Interment in Oakland cemetery Monday forenoon.

Mrs. Euphemia Maxwell, now in her 81st year, has just received an ably written letter and photo from her brother, James Duffin, aged 89, at Cooper of Fife, Scotland. She has had no word from her family relatives in the old country for more than a half century and was greatly elated to get this information from the land of her birth and her childhood. The old lady is remarkably well preserved for one of her age and her brother's photo indicates that he too is standing the passing years and is also well to do in this world's goods. A son of James Duffin was in New York, Philadelphia and Washington City a few months ago on business, but did not know that he had relatives in America. This recent letter was in answer to inquiries from Mrs. Maxwell's daughter in Trenton, N. J.

John Blair was home over Sunday. Mr. Godward and son of Lowellville spent Sunday with Henry Blair and family.

Charles Shaffer of Sample spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kirk.

J. R. Ewing was a Youngstown visitor Saturday.

Jim McArthur of Sharon, Pa., spent a few days here with his mother.

Mr. Byers of Youngstown called on old friend here. He is now in John Schieler of Walnut Hill called on his daughter, Mrs. Leonard, Monday.

Ewing Gault has rented his farm. Mrs. Gault's health being so poor that they will have to leave the farm.

Will Ruppert was in Youngstown Saturday evening. He is now in Youngstown.

W. Young will have a sale Nov. 3 on account of Mrs. Young's health being such that she can not stand the work on a farm.

G. J. Gault was in Austintown Monday.

Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Reed left Wednesday for Faraday to spend a few days with their sister, Mrs. Warren Lynn.

The pupils of our school are well pleased with their new teacher.

Frank Witherstone of North Jackson was here Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Bead called on friends in Canfield Tuesday.

Mrs. Ocella McDonald called on Fred Craver and family in Youngstown, Saturday.

Pleasant autumn weather for nothing.

Mrs. S. J. Taylor has had gas piped into her residence.

Joseph Vlasak's sale of household goods Monday was largely attended.

Hi Weikart and daughter Effie of Leetonia visited relatives here Sunday.

The second team of Lisbon will play our second team on the local gridiron Oct. 29.

The familiar countenance of Sam. Marquis was seen upon the passenger platform Monday morning.

Wm. A. Cox is plastering in Salem, R. B. Maxwell in East Palestine and Geo. Butler in Youngstown.

Lunch wagons have become very numerous here of late. This is doing injustice to local lunch counters.

The mines are not working regularly. For the time of the year they ought to be putting in full time.

Miss Belle Getz, Misses Marie and Ruth Metzger of Youngstown spent Sunday with H. H. Getz and wife.

The Salem Herald's contest for the European tour will close next Monday, and the count will be made the next day.

Sebring's fast football team will play our first aggregation here Saturday afternoon. Look out for a fierce game.

Frederick Anderson and wife of East Liverpool and Mrs. James Maxwell of Monessen, Pa., spent Sunday with relatives here.

Prof. J. F. Guy and son were here Monday morning on their way home to Canfield after a visit with his parents in Malvern.

It is reluctantly admitted here in political circles that Gov. Harmon and J. J. Whitacre will be elected at the November election.

"Mother Jones," the friend of organized coal miners, will speak in Canton next Sunday. Some from here think of going to hear her.

Geo. Lentz, wife and daughter of Salem spent Sunday at the home of her parents, L. Carrier and wife, and with her sister, Mrs. Percy Tetlow.

When Walter Wellman succeeds in crossing the Atlantic in an air ship, some Washingtonville youth will try to cross Bates' dam in the same way.

A. L. Taylor and family spent Sunday at the pleasant country home of S. D. Culp, and they do say that Alva is so much that he could hardly get home.

R. B. Maxwell and wife will need to look around for a fine new baby carriage for the 9½-pound daughter which came to them last Saturday morning.

The sheriff of Stark county was here Wednesday and subpoenaed A. L. Taylor as a character witness in the divorce case of Mrs. Sadie Pregezer vs. Charles Pregezer, pending in the court at Canton.

How about the Mardi Gras for Halloween?

S. Johnson sailed from New York for Liverpool, Wednesday, for a visit in his native country.

Harry Kessler and wife of Sharon spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Williams.

Mrs. Henry Haller and Mrs. Wolfgang of Leetonia visited at the home of J. D. Williams and wife, Monday.

Earl McCartney and wife are home from Guernsey county on a visit with their parents at Salem and Canfield.

Jos. Cox, sr., and wife have transplanted their flowers from the garden into their new and enlarged greenhouse.

Thomas Longbottom has about recovered from a severe illness and is able to be upon the streets these pleasant fall days.

Relatives in other towns remembered that Sunday was my birthday and showered me with post cards, handkerchiefs and other things.

L. P. Metzger has issued a statement that he will proceed against the grafters of Columbiana county within 90 days. That will be after the November election, and will be similar to the prosecutions in Mahoning county.

Masters Loron Montgolfier and Willie Westinghouse are constructing a bi-plane from designs given in a new booklet for youths. The first attempt at aerial navigation by Master Loron, as given in last week's Dispatch, has attracted the attention of other boys about town
